28	Forever bright tooth gel	he proportion of Aloe Vera used was determined after testing at a leading US Dental College. The formula has good anti-bacterial properties for fighting plaque and keeping your breath fresh. The anti-inflammatory properties benefit the gums and lining of the mouth, and it is particularly good for bleeding gums and mouth ulcers (bleeding gums should always be discussed with a dentist, and the underlying cause treated as there is a risk if not controlled of teeth loss). Forever Bright Toothgel is non abrasive, and very effective. It contains a natural whitening agent to keep your teeth looking good without the enamel erosion of harsher toothpastes. It does not contain fluoride. While fluoride is strongly recommended by dentists, where there is fluoride in the water (either naturally or added) using a fluoride toothpaste could add too much fluoride. Some people are in any case worried about fluoride in their water, and may prefer a non-fluoride toothgel.		3.900
